Milligan

Their story captures the start of a social enterprise idea, as a group of young mums – the Nixi group - unpack what a social enterprise could look like for them, Working with WASEC to explore possibilities around products, skills, values, and the kind of impact the women want Nixi to have in their community.

Thanks for giving us the opportunity to be involved

Denmark CRC

Their story shows how they can build their own solutions by combining collaboration and determination and how the profits from the income generating activities of the CRC are being used to create impact in their community, beyond the outcomes or activities directed by government contract funding. Denmark’s Community Bus tells the story of people in their community, the difference the bus makes and documents a written case study of their journey to making this self-sustainable into the future.

Pingelly CRC

Staying in Place grew in Pingelly from a simple, yet profound belief: that everyone deserves the right to age with dignity in the community they call home. Their social enterprise story explores the lessons learned, the lives that have been changed, and the bright, resilient future their community is building together.

Perth City Farm

Celebrates their success story as a 31 year old organisation that funds itself as a social enterprise. Their Founders were enterprising and that has been part of the organisational culture that has evolved from a volunteer driven initiative to a million dollar operation in 2025. At times this has been the only way to self fund, but it’s also been the smartest way to self fund so they can deliver on their purpose of people living more sustainably.

Thank you for this wonderful opportunity

Tambellup CRC

Their Staying in Place story tells the journey as they rethink it as an enterprise, an exciting new concept for the CRC. Their resources highlight the journey from a single client to a growing program, their learning around social enterprise, and their vision for building sustainability into the future.

Serpentine Jarrahdale CRC
